TRAVELING WITH JOB ALLEN, III

Job Allen the third, was born July 2, 1780 on the old Allen farm near Denville, Morris County, New Jersey, and Elizabeth Jackson was born Feb. 12, 1782 at or near Rockaway, in the same County and State. They were married in 1800 and lived, as I believe for the insuing fourteen years in the Allen home where five children were born to them.

Then the spirt of "Westward Ho" came upon them and they yielded to its appeal.

They evidently considered the problem for some time, in fact Job Allen made an advance trip to Ohio before the question was settled. Isaac J. Allen, a son of Job has left this record regarding that trip. "My father and two or three others had gone there (Knox County) previous to the removal to view the country and secure farms; had traveled altogether on horse-back across the mountains and returned, a full thousand miles in all."

This spying out their lands in advance of actual migration was not uncommon and was a most practial proceeding for obviously it would have been a short sighted policy to make such a journey without a definite objective.

So let us accept Uncle Isaac's statement and credit Job Allen with our round trip between New Jersey and Ohio, say in the year 1813 or possible earlier.

I have never heard the reason for their leaving New Jersey; probably there were several reasons for their leaving, but we may be sure the chief reason was the lure of the cheap, but highly fertile lands to be found in Ohio.

Had the reasons for the migration and the discussions held relative there to in the family circles been preserved what an interesting chapter would be added to the family history. The period of preparation for their departure must have been one of deep emotional experience, both for those who were going west and those who were to remain in the east. There were sorrow over the separation of friends and kindred, which for many, as they well knew, was for the rest of their earthly lives; there was dread of the manifold dangers and hardships of the long journey and hope of honour, comfort, and success to be won in the primeval forrest of Ohio; these and more formed the warp and woof of their mental life.

This pioneering was a tremendous undertaking and called for a high degree of courage, self-reliance and resourcefulness in those who were to make good and the men and women who transformed Ohio from virgin forrest to farms had these qualities in a degree that way have been equaled but not excelled by any others of whom we have knowledge.

TRAVELING WITH JOB ALLEN, III . . . continued

It was a large caravan that started west, a fact which added much to the safety, speed and ease of the trip. My Grandfather, James M. Allen, a son of Job and a member of the party, said there were six families while Uncle Isaac said there were other families besides the related Allen-Jackson families, but he did not tell us how many. Perhaps grandfather counted all the Allen's as one family, and all the Jackson's as one family, which would leave room for four other families to make his total of six. I wish I could give the complete personalle of that band of travelers, I give all I can.

The Allen's consisted of Job Allen age 34
 Elizabeth (Jackson) Allen, his wife age 32 and their five children namely:

Job Allen	Age 13
William Allen	age 9
Emily Allen	age 7
James M. Allen	age 4
Isaac J. Allen	age...a baby

John Allen, brother of Job, the third, age 32 and Charity (Kitchell) Allen, his wife age 31 and probably three of their children.

To introduce the Jacksons I quote what grandfather has written regarding them, He Says"

In 1814 the aged Benjamin and Abigal gathered up their goods and all the children which they had got in Novo Ces-avea (New Jersey), and when September winds shook the fruit from the trees, in wagons drawn by oxen and by horses, over mountains, through swamps, and streams of water, cutting their way thru the timber, after more than 40 days and nights settled and slept on the banks of the beautiful Ko-Ko-Sing in Knox, County", Now I present them by names.

-Benjamin Jackson Br., a veteran of the Revolution, the father of Elizabeth (Jackson) Allen, age 62 and his wife Abigal (Mitchell) Jackson, age 59.

David Jackson, son of Benjamin, age 28, and his wife Prudence (Hathaway) Jackson, and possible two children.

Daniel Jackson, son of Benjamin, age 26 and his wife.

Benjamin Jackson Jr. age 22, and his wife Nancy (Robinson) Jackson, age 15. They were married in February of that year so they may have considered this trip as a part of their honeymoon.

Phebe (Jackson) Lewis, the youngest daughter of Benjamin and Abigal who is elsewhere called Aunt Phebe deserves our attention, she was then 30 years of age, and a widow. She brought her two sons; James Lewis, age 11 and Benjamin

Lewis, age 9 with her. About three years later she married secondly John Venum and still later was a pioneer in Illinois. She is the Aunt Phebe Venum, who lived to be 105 years old lacking 4 days.

I find grandfather is slightly in error when he says that Benjamin brought all his children with him in 1814.

Ziba Jackson, the eldest son, settled in Knox County, in 1807 and I fancy was very instrumental in getting his parents and the others members of the family to come west and join him.

Account shows that there were fully 25 persons in the Allen-Jackson contingent of the company.

Isaac Jackson and wife were in Ohio before his parents as he died in Knox County, in 1813. (V.D.A.)

SWITZER FAMILY TREE

Peter Switzer born in Virginia, May 9, 1769. Died in Indiana Nov. 14, 1844. Mary Hoover Switzer born in Virginia in 1774. Died in Indiana Nov. 26, 1848. Peter Switzer and Mary Hoover were married in Greenbriar Co., Va. in 1794. They moved to Pike Co., Ohio about 1806, and from there to Ind. (Vermilion Co.,) in 1834, buying the farm from their son John, who had entered the farm in 1824. The Switzer Family Cemetery is located on the farm, and in this these pioneers are buried.

Their son, Wesley, married Nancy Henderson June 3, 1841. Both rest in the Switzer Cemetery. Wesley Switzer was born March 24, 1829 in Pike Co., Ohio, and died March 4, 1904 in Vermilion Co., Ind.

Nancy Henderson, his wife, was born July 12, 1823 in Pickway Co., Ohio and died April 10, 1882 in Ind.

Wesley came to Ind. with his parents when 13 years old. The family cemetery is on his farm which was purchased by an older brother from the Government, and it adjoined one owned by an older brother, Isaac.

"This certifies that David G. Switzer and Susie L. Davis were united by me in Holy Bonds of Matrimony at Kinmundy on the 23rd day of December, in the year of our Lord 1894

THE KEYT FAMILY

This is a family record written by Elizabeth Keyt, born Dec. 5, 1818, daughter of John Keyt and his wife Margaret Widney. This is a small booklet made of wrapping paper and fastened together with pins. Included are data written on small pieces of different kinds of paper and are in same handwriting.

Grandfather Keyt was married to Elizabeth Boss.

My grandfather Keyt was in the revolutionary war in 1776. The enemy made a rade on his farm near Elizabethtown New Jersey and took all his horses and cattle but the cows all broke loose from them and ran home except one cow which was to fat and they killed her.

Patterson N. J. or N. York this is a history of Benjamin Crane he was 83 years old in 1888. When he was 7 years old he remembers well about his oldest Brother and my father (John Keyt) putting on their knapsacks at his fathers house and starting on foot for Cincinnati, Ohio. Uncle David Keyt (my father's brother) married this Mr. Crane's oldest sister Abigal. this was James Keyts (black Jim as we sometimes called him) Father and Mother. Their children was James and Ann Eliza. Soon after that the mother died and the father (David Keyt) went to Hamilton and not long after he died. Their daughter Ann Eliza married a Mr. Woodruff and she died a year or so after she was married and their son James after he learned the brick mason trade he came to Piqua Ohio and lived there a while then he went to Rockford, Ill.

THE WIDNEY FAMILY

This book is an old-fashioned "Composition Book" with a stiff cover. The history given is hand written with fine pen and black ink. The writing is very small and clear. On the first page is written:

"This Book is for a history of the Connections, commencing at my Great, Grand, Parents.

"This is as far back as I can find out and this History should go from this generation down to the latest one.

Elizabeth (Keyt) Wood
Marion, Grant Co., Indiana
formerly of Piqua, Miami Co. Ohio
February 11th 1890"

These are the Parents of Grand Father Widney (my Great Grand Father and Great Grand Mother on my Mother's side)

John Widney born about 1720. (They were from Holland, married Mary Wilson about 1750. They, I presume lived and died in Ireland.

John Widney (my Mother's Father) was born in Monahan or Monaghan Co., Ireland February 9th or 10th 1766. Emigrated from there to America in September 1784 and settled in Franklin Co., Pennsylvania. Was married to Mary Johnston perhaps in Concord Pennsylvania in 1794, April the 15th.

In 1810-11 moved from Cumberland Co., Pennsylvania to upper Piqua, Miami Co., Ohio, to a farm 3 miles north of Piqua.

When the War of 1812 broke out the Indians were so troublesome, when the women went out to milk the cows, the men had to take their guns and watch for the Indians. So grand-father took his family and moved below Dayton, Ohio till the war was over then he moved back to his farm. He was a very good upright conscientious pious man, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He had a great influence for good over his descendants and they had great reverence for him.

He died June 29th 1836 in his 71st year, buried at Upper Piqua grave yard.

(Next follows religious verses which he composed.)

WIDNEY . . . continued

Stephen Johnston (my Great, Grand Father on my Mother's side.)

He was a descendant from Scotch ancestors who came into Ireland with the Protestant King William and received an estate near Enniskillin for their services.

Elizabeth Johnston (my great Grand Mother on my Mother's side). her name before she was married was Elizabeth Barnard, was born in Donegal, Ireland in 1745. Died at her son's house, James Johnston, at upper Piqua, Ohio, August the 28th 1834 and berried in Johnston grave yard 2 miles north of Piqua, Aged 89 years.

She was from the French Huganots who fled from religious persecution in France and took refuge in Ireland.

Mary Johnston (my Mother's Mother) was born in Donegal, Ireland, November 27th 1739. Emigrated to America, to Cumberland Co., Pennsylvania, August 1791. Married near Concord, Cumberland Co. to John Widney April 15th 1794. And moved to Piqua, Miami Co., Ohio in 1810. She died M March 17th 1847 In her 78th year. She was berried at Upper Piqua grave yard. She was a good pious women and a member of Methodist Episcopal church over 60 years. When John Keyt and Margaret Widney were to be married the preacher had no license to marry anyone. Margaret's mother thot it not proper for a squire to marry her daughter as she was of royal blood. The preacher was invited for a part of ceremony and the squire to tie the knot. When John Keyt was a young man, he and another young man who was Benjamin Crane's oldest brother came on foot from New Jersey to Cincinnati, then they went to Hamilton, Ohio and from there to Piqua, Ohio. He was a carpenter and architect by trade. Col. John Johnston (Mother's Uncle) had sent for him to build his large house. He was one of the head men to build the first Methodist Episcopal Church east of the canal. Several years ago the men were by law obliged to practice military drill one day every three months. He was Captain of a company,

HISTORY OF THE WOOD FAMILY

David Wood b. Amesbury Wellestshire England, N.E. of South Hampton & came to Mass. 1685. His son Stephen b. 1706 married Lida Phillips & lived Dracut Mass., across the Merrimack river from where Lowell now stands. Their son Abjah b. at Dracut March 1743 & m. Esther Lewis, dau. of Benj. Lewis of New Bedford. She was aunt of Henry Lewis pork-packer of Cincinnati who we sold barrells to about 1846.

Children of Abjah & Esther Wood;

Elizabeth m. James Farwell, Tingsborough, Mass.

Rhoda m. Jesse Hardy & had Jesse; Joel; Amos; Luther; Eli; Daniel; & David

Hiram m. Elizabeth Chever & had Hiram; Moses; Sybil; Aaron; Lucinda & Isaac

Mary m. David Willoby & had David; Mary; Lewis; Esther; Elizabeth; Edward & Frank

Phillip m. Dorothy Davis & had Phillip; Timothy Davis; Leonard; Dorothy; Abijah; Ambrose; William & Charles. Phillip (1st son of Phillip & Dorothy) & his brother Leonard left New England in 1825-6 to reside in Tenn. where they died. Rev. Phillip d. 1857. Timothy Davis the 2nd son m. 1824 in Bedford, N.H. to Mary Seaton Washer b. Amhurst, N.H., 3-18-1806. Moved to Piqua, O. 1843. Presbyterians.

Lewis m. Mary Flint & had Lewis; Charles; Mary Samuel; Calvin; Alfred; Osborn & Augustus.

The Flint family (Samuel Wood's Mother's family) came from England in an early day & settled on what was called Tings Manor. It was a tract of land 10 miles long on west side of Merrimack river & what is now Nashua, N.H. & Tingsborough, Mass. Mr. Ting built a block house 10 miles south of where Nashua, N.H. now stands.

About 4 miles west of Nashua there is a water pond called Tings Pond & on the east side is where it is said the first Flint family lived. In 1696 on account of the Indian raids from Canada, the settlers all went back to Tingsborough except Ting & 12 soldiers who held the block house. It was the most northern settlement of the colony. The Indians surprised the block-house & killed 6 soldiers & 2 women but Ting held the fort until help came. I do not think the Flints ever came back but remained at Tingsborough. This is from history of Hollis, family records & personal recollections.

JONES-OLEHY FAMILIES

A portion of written record of Donald Noone, past secretary of Jones-Olehy Family association.

William Jones was born in Kentucky Feb.24, 1798.

Jane Martin was born April 15, 1795.

They were married Jan.25, 1816. They came to Illinois in 1835 and settled on a farm southeast of Danville, where they lived until his death Oct.30, 1859. To their union were born 8 children.

William Jones is the grand-son of the late William Jones and Jane (Martin) Jones and is president of the association and lived 4 miles east of the city on R.R.5.

Dennis and Martha Elizabeth Vannart Olehy came from Virginia to Ohio in an early day. The Olehy's came from Ireland. To Dennis and Martha Olehy were born seven children: (1) William, (2) John, (3) Elizabeth, (4) Dennis, (5) Margaret, (6) Nancy and (7) Jacob. In about 1830, Dennis and John Olehy with their mother (their father having died in Ohio) came to Vermilion County, Illinois and located on a farm, which is now the Soldiers' Home. When they first came to Illinois, they built a place out of rails in which to live. They afterwards built with a linn tree, a cabin making a puncheon floor, a door and table. The remainder of the family came the following year.

(1) William married Mary Glaze and to them were born 8 children: John, Rebecca, William, George, Oliver, Milton, Henry and Mary Ann.

(2) John married Mary Ritter and to them were born 12 children: Dennis, Louise, Elvira, Jane, James, Columbus, John, William, Ellen, Matilda, Isaac and Anna. The mother died in 1857 and he married Susanna Minor in 1857. They had 3 children.

(3) Martha, (one record says Elizabeth instead of Martha), married Reason House and had 5 children: Isaac, Edward, John, Dennis and Elizabeth.

(4) Dennis married Elizabeth Glaze and to them were born 6 children: Nancy, Rachel, Mary Ann, Francis, Newton, Perry. The mother died in 1845 and the father married Sarah Ann Jones and to them were born 9 children: Jane, Adaline, John, William, Elizabeth, Joshua, Martha, Ruth and Alice.

(5) Nancy married Harrison Glzae and to them were born 5 children: Rebecca Ann, Matilda, Henry, John and Edward.

(6) Jacob married Anna Glaze and they had 5 children: Elizabeth, William, Jasper, Rebecca, Dennis and Martha.

(7) Margaret Olehy went West in an early day and nothing is known of her.

DENNIS OLEHY was born in Virginia in 1776.

JONATHAN PRATHER came to Indiana from Kentucky and made his home on a farm part of which is now the north-eastern part of Rileysburg. Some of his children went to other parts of the country to live but Deborah, who married William Lafferty and after his death married Isaac Rouse, lived on the farm just north of the old home place and Jonathan who married Nancy Houston lived a short distance south. Mary Ann married Presley Martin and lived on a farm 3<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> miles north of Rileysburg (Ind.) and a little north of the Covington Road.

There were 16 of the Rileysburg Grandchildren. They were: Eliza Ann Marble, Ellen Petterson, William Lafferty, Mary Jane Jones, and Mack & Dennis Rouse who were Deborah's children; Isaac, Mahlon and Frank Prather, Dora Gouty, Martha Goff and Ellen Knott (who were) Jonathan's children; William and John Martin and Martha who married Robert Martin and Sarah Ellen Emeley (who were) Mary Ann's children.

These cousins were of third generation of Prathers who came to Indiana from Kentucky. Six of them are still living. William Martin the last of Mary Ann's family died April 14, 1939 only 18 days of being 90 years old. He was born on the old Prather farm at Rileysburg May 2, 1839.

In April 1849 the Asiatic Cholera was brought to this part of the country by a stranger who had come to Covington by boat from the South. It was a terrible disease and unknown in this country. As it was very contagious many died in a few days. Of the very few recovered from the disease, one was Isaac Rouse and one was Mrs. Edward Rouse Presley Martin's sister.

One of the many who lost their lives was Presley Martin who died at night and was buried before morning on the farm. Not long after one of their small children was buried beside him.

When the Big Four railroad was built, it passed a little way north of the graves. Years later the 60 acres with the graves was sold to Edward Rouse, a brother-in-law of Presley Martin. Fifteen or more years ago it was again sold, then the tombstones were thrown into the fence row and the ground cultivated by the new owners.

Before his death he had gotten out timbers and prepared them for a new house, one immense tree making many hundred feet of lumber. The frame work was of hewn logs. In the fall the neighbors had a house raising for the family. Edward Lynch bought the 60 acres with the house and in 1878 moved the house to the Covington road and remodeled it. For many years it was the Lynch home. It is now owned by William Lynch.

Mary Ann had a hard time with four little children, the oldest William not quite 10 years old when his father died. She kept house for a while for her brother Uriah Prather at Rossville. - - - - He (William Martin) was married to Rosanna Houdy March 11, 1858 and lived at the Lynn cabin, north of Lynch school, but on the east side of the road on his father's farm where Presley Martin was born. They lived for a year or two near Rossville where Maryetta Gouty was born. - - - - Soon a two room frame addition was built to the old house and in this Samuel and Louella Sparks were born. Later the house across the road where Luther Gouty now lives was built. - - - - The new house was their home until after the children were married. Then they moved to their last home in Danville, Ill.

William Martin was much interested in feeding cattle and hogs. He would go to Chicago or Kansas City for stock to feed and made a trip not long before his death.

One of his sisters, Sarah Ellen Ealey, made her home in Arkansas City, Kansas and not many of her family have visited at Danville.

The older sister, Martha Ann, married her cousin, Robert Martin, and they lived for many years near Lebanon, Indiana. Last year six members of her family attended our reunion, a son William and his wife Helen, two daughters. Miss Ida Martin and Mrs. Laura Hedge and her two daughters Valera and Vivian.

His brother John married Martha Olehy and lived at or near Danville until his death many years ago. Later his family moved to Monticello, Illinois which was Mrs. Martin's late home. Their son William lived in Idaho; Albert in Urbana and Miss Bertha Martin in Champaign.

There are 12 grandchildren of William Martin living and one, Blanche Pool, died March 1, 1929. There are 36 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren, 2 of whom Robert and Merle Wolter were born on the same farm on which he was born which had been his grandfather's. Altogether there are 77 members of his family. The great-great-grandchildren are of the Prathers who came from Kentucky.

MEADE FAMILY RECORDS

Most of this material has been compiled over the years at the Meade reunions here in Danville, Illinois. Other references which can be used are: History of Vermilion County, Illinois, Vol. 1 by Lottie E. Jones, Pioneer Pub. Co., Chicago, Illinois, 1911.

History of County by H. W. Beckwith, Pub. by H. H. Hill Co., Chicago 1873.

Lewis Meade and his wife, name unknown came from Gloucester, England before the American Revolution and landed at Boston and finally settled in Vermont. Here they raised a family of three boys and two girls, namely Jerry, Luke, Levi, Mary and Louisa.

Levi, who married Mary Ann Parris (Ferris), June 8, 1791 was the ancestor of this branch of the family. Their children were Simeon, Nathaniel, Mariah, Lewis, Louisa, Sanford, Amanda, Sarah and Augustus.

The family moved from Vermont to New York, then New Jersey. After living there for some time, they moved to Ohio, entered land from the government, cleared off the timber, erected the necessary buildings and lived on the farm for some time, then sold it and moved to Butler or Hamilton County, Ohio. Here the two boys, Simeon and Nathaniel, married the Crane sisters, Mary and Annar.

Simeon's children were Anselm, Levi, Huldah born in Ohio, Cyrus b. in Newport, Ind., Charles killed by a rebel bullet, Mary Frances, Clark and George b. in Verm. Co., Ill.

Nathaniel's children were Sarah, Wm., David b. in Ohio, George, James, Ann, Mary Jane b. near Liberty, Union Co., Ind.

After living for some time in Hamilton County, Ohio, Nathaniel moved to Union Co., Ind. Here he remained until 1835 when his father Levi and about all of the family came to Vermilion Co., Illinois and settled where Conkeytown now is, s. of Muncie, Ill.

Simeon and Mariah stayed at Newport, Ind. for awhile and then came to Verm. Co., Ill. Sarah, the oldest of Nathaniel's family married Benj. Coddington and lived in Indiana - later came to Ill. William, Nathaniel's second son married Margaret Tanner.

RECEIVED
JAN 10 1964
PHYSICS DEPARTMENT

These inscriptions were copied from stones in a small plot east of Old Webster School and near Middlefork, a branch of the Vermillion River. It is located north of Oakwood. Only five stones are visible, though there may be more as the spot was heavily carpeted with myrtle. These were contributed by Mr. C. F. Graham, Rural Route No.1, Oakwood, Ill.

In memory of Edward M. Wilson. Born in County Down, Ireland. Emigrated to United States 1802. Served in Battle of North Point. Migrated to West 1832. Died September 4th, 1840. Aged 55 years.
